Wait A Minute!

Computer crash, computer recovery. Possibly. Last week I spoke of my computer crashing and losing all of my data. I sent my broken hard drive off to a company that restores data and only charges if they can recover the data. I should know by the end of this week how they did.

Speaking of crashing and recovery: When we crash; when we make a mistake; when we choose unwisely; when we speak ill of someone; when our attitude is bad; when we ignore God in our life; when we neglect His Lordship over our life; God is ready to recover and restore us. We call this forgiveness. We receive this forgiveness at no cost to us. God’s love and God’s grace makes all this possible. Like I told you on Sunday, God knows but He loves you anyway. That’s a restoration project that motivates me to live for Him.

A good friend of ours, Phil Landers, passed away Sunday from a major heart attack. We will be heading to Waco for the funeral services set for Friday. Please pray for the Landers’ family and for me. Preaching this funeral will be a very difficult assignment.

As always, I thank you for the opportunity of ministry and look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday.
