During this time ...

Our church continues to pay its bills, obligations, and payroll. To do this we depend upon you. Please remain faithful as always in your giving and support. You can mail in your offering to PO Box 971. You can contribute online through our website: fccdumas.org. You can stop by the office during the week. Or, you can make up your offerings when we begin to meet regularly again. Thanks for being faithful in your giving and support.

Wait A Minute!

Give thanks with a grateful heart; give thanks to the Holy One; give thanks, because He's given Jesus Christ, His Son!

We carry out these marching orders from 1 Thesalonians 5: "In everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." In everything, give thanks. In everything ...

After much thought I've decided to give thanks for the interruption of the coronavirus. Here are my reasons: First, I get to spend more time with Holly because both of us are home a good portion of the day; and then together through the evening.

Second, my immediate family is doing well during this time.

Third, my oldest daughter became engaged during the outbreak of the coronavirus and we will celebrate with a wedding in December.

Fourth, as the stock market fell and hopefully bottomed out, I've invested in several stocks and hope to ride the wave back up. I will not become wealthy by any stretch of the imagination but I will have some extra spending money.

Fifth, the coronavirus crisis gave me a mandate to figure out Facebook live so that we could at least meet together through the internet.

And sixth, I've heard countless stories about so many of our church members, and how they have assisted people during this time. You bought groceries; you've doubled your tips; you've prayed without ceasing. So many in need; and you've had a hand in helping out. So, I give thanks for a church that cares.

So, in everything (including a coronavirus) I give thanks to God. I'll see you Sunday through Facebook live.

Hymns About Him

This summer we will use our favorite hymns as the centerpiece of our worship services. So, please vote for your favorite. You can vote for more than one favorite; and the hymn can be either traditional or contemporary. Email your vote to fccdumaspastor@cableone.net or drop it by the church; or send it thru the mail; or wait until May and place in offering plate.
