Wait A Minute!

A fruit of the Spirit prayer. Lord, give me the love to embrace others just as you have embraced me. Give me this love so that I can minister to the down and out and thus serve you.

Lord, give me joy so that my demeanor never appears defeated and my countenance always reflects hope.

Lord, give me peace so that worry and anxiety cannot win the daily battles.

Lord, give me patience and hurry. I do not want my lack of patience to subtract from my testimony.

Lord, give me kindness for with kindness I become more like you and less like my selfish self. And then with this kindness, give me opportunities to put it into practice.

Lord, make me good simply for goodness sake. That is, help me to do the right thing or speak the right word all for the right reasons; and then enable me to please you with my life and my words, all for your glory. Good for goodness sake.

Lord, empower me with faithfulness so that in my life it is your will -- nothing more; nothing less; and nothing else.

Lord, give me a gentle spirit so that I can make it through this day without a selfish disposition and without demanding my rights and without forcing my agenda.

And then Lord, remind me constantly about the need for self control -- so that I can think before I speak and rejoice with others without envy.

I pray this in the Name of Jesus who enables. Amen.
