Wait A Minute!

Several years ago, a foreign exchange student from China was at the First Methodist Church of Ann Arbor, Michigan, every day. He was there every day, for four years. Every time the doors were opened, he was there. Every time the people gathered for worship, he was there. Every time the congregation met for fellowship, he was there. Every Sunday when the members came for Bible study, he was there. He was there – unknown to anyone – for he had failed most of his classes at the University of Michigan. He was there – full of shame. He was there – over whelmed. He was there – yet unnoticed. He was there – but received no encouragement.

For he was at the First Methodist Church of Ann Arbor, Michigan, hiding in the attic. At night, he would descend from his hiding place, scrounge food from the kitchen, use the facilities, walk through the hallways, and then journey back to his hiding place. This was his routine for four years. When he was finally discovered, his hair hung down to his shoulders, his skin was pallid, his eyes looked empty. He was at the church for four years; and yet no one knew.

Our congregation is a place where every person can know and be known; seek love and share love. And that’s why we will begin the ministry called Embrace Grace. Young women (and men) who find themselves in a dilemma; who have worries about tomorrow; who may be frightened by what’s happening in them and around them; will come to our church looking for love and they will find love. They will be looking for a light of hope and they will discover hope. They may simply need a word of encouragement and they will find that encouragement.

If you would like to be a part of the planning committee that helps to implement this ministry, please come to our first meeting on Wednesday, July 28th. There really is a sign up sheet now in the foyer.

Thank you for being the kind of place where anyone and everyone can know and be known; love and be loved. I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday.
