The Good News

Over or Under Wait:

The over/under is a gambling term based on the total number of points a team will score during a game. If the over/under is 48.5 between two teams, and you believe the point total will be more than that, then you bet the over; less than that, you bet the under.

Here's my over/under take as a follower of Christ:

Over as an encourager; under as a criticizer.

Over in terms of love; under in terms of apathy.

Over when it comes to forgiveness; way under if tempted to hold a grudge.

Over as a person of prayer; under as a person of worry.

Over when I think of humility; under if I lean toward a proud, do it yourself attitude.

Over when thinking of others; under when looking out simply for self.

Over in actions of service; under when wondering why others are not serving me.

Over in a joyful demeanor; under when surrounded by the blahs.

Over when the day calls for patience; under when impatience tries to ruin my day.

Overwhelmed and over enthused when I worship God; please, not under whelmed or under involved when I think of His blessings.

And finally, overjoyed when we worship together this Sunday and I look forward to seeing you then.
