The Good News

Wait A Minute!

And this is love. This Sunday we come to the end of our series of sermons concerning relationships; and we end with the obvious: This is love.

This is love, according to some children who were asked: What is love?

This is love ... "when my grandmother got arthritis, she couldn't bend over and paint her toenails anymore. So my grandfather does it for her all the time."

This is love ... "the way they say your name is different. You just know that your name is safe in their mouth."

This is love ... "It's what's in the room at Christmas, if you stop opening presents and listen."

This is love ... "It is like a little old woman and a little old man who are still friends even after they know each other so well."

And finally, eight year old Jessica states: "You really shouldn't say 'I love you' unless you mean it. But if you mean it, you should say it a lot."

This is love. We will take an understandable glance at an obvious relational need this Sunday.

As always, I thank you so much for the opportunity of service and I do look forwarding to worshipping with you this Sunday.
