The Good News

Wait A Second!

Baby dedication. This Sunday, Chris and Rebecca Dow along with JL and Ashleigh Wiswell, will stand before our church family and dedicate themselves to raising Carter and Adaleigh in the instruction and discipline of the Lord.

As a Christian church, we do not practice infant baptism; for we believe that baptism is not for salvation but a symbol that comes following salvation. Baptism is a public confession of faith.

However, in lieu of baptism, we do offer baby dedication. And baby dedication is not about salvation but about parents making a public commitment to dedicate themselves to God and then to raising their child or children in the instruction and admonition of God.

Two phases are involved. The parents make a commitment. And then the church accepts a responsibility as well.

Any parent in our church can have a baby or even a child dedication. We willingly accept the responsibility of helping parents in the sometimes difficult task of raising children.

So, I hope you will be here Sunday as we have this baby dedication; and also, as we begin a new series of messages: Living in the real Graceland.

As always, thank you so much for the opportunity of service and ministry and I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday.
