The Good News

Wait A Minute!

20 years ago. The Sanyo SCP-5300 became the first cell phone with a built in camera. We were carrying phones but we weren't texting yet. Apple released its second generation iPod, and you couldn't play music on your cell phones - yet. The Disney animated feature, Lilo and Stitch, was released in a theater near you. Spider-Man was one of the three biggest films of the year.

And then locally, 20 years ago: Wal Mart was still located in the Guy Lane Plaza. McDonalds was a one story building. The pizza Hut looked like the original Pizza Hut restaurants from the 1970's.

And of course personally: 20 years ago you allowed me to become your pastor. Our children turned 12, 10, and 6 that year. They are now all married with at least one child; and they all have college educations.

It has been a great journey for me. I have preached close to 1000 times in our church; I have helped with just over 100 funerals; and I really do not know how many weddings. I have also made who knows how many hospital visits and set with people in hospital waiting rooms for who knows how many hours. We have been together in a lot of good times; and of course, in some difficult times as well.

Thank you so much for the opportunity. I count myself as the most blessed pastor in the world. You have made that possible. You really deserve the plaque that I received, for putting up with me.

Once again, thanks for the opportunity and I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday.

*Here’s a word you can take to heart and depend on: Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners. I’m proof—Public Sinner Number One—of someone who could never have made it apart from sheer mercy. And now he shows me off—evidence of his endless patience—to those who are right on the edge of trusting him forever.
(1 Timothy 1: 15-16, The Message)*
