The Good News

Wait A Minute!

On NCIS last night, Jimmy Palmer and Kasie Hines were in the lab when there was a release of a bio-hazardous chemical. They were locked in this lab to prevent this chemical from expanding and causing even more damage. They are on the edge of death when Jimmy speaks to his daughter thru the intercom. When asked by his daughter if he was going to die, he responded: "Yes." Then he continued: "And so are you." And then he went on with this bit of wisdom: "It's not how we die or when we die but how we live that's important." By the end of this dialogue, Special Agent "tough guy" Nick Torres was in tears; and so was Holly sitting right next to me. Hold that paragraph for a moment.

In a Christian news source, popular pastor and teacher Greg Laurie rhetorically asked: "Is there any prophetic significance to what is happening in Ukraine right now and other events that are unfolding around the world?" His reply: "The answer is yes." He then went on to list some world events and connected those events to the Bible before saying: "The more signs we see happening back-to-back it reminds us that Jesus' return is nearing." And after reading this I would remind you: "We've been in the last days or the end times since Jesus walked on this earth."

Now let me connect some dots: "It's not when we die or how we die; and it's not when Jesus returns or what signs point to his return; or what happens immediately before or after His return; what counts is how we live right now, in the present.

So we live in harmony with others (Romans 12:16). We live as a Christ follower in whatever situation God has placed us into (1 Corinthians 7:17). We live by faith in the Son of God because it is no longer I who live but Jesus Christ who lives in me (Galatians 2:20). We live or walk in wisdom making the most of every day (Ephesians 5:15). And we live a life worthy of the Lord Jesus and do everything we can to please Him in every way (Colossians 1:10).

If how we live is what counts, then we love; we give thanks; we serve when the opportunity appears; we give and we do so generously; and we practice kindness and patience and gentleness. We encourage rather than discourage; we speak wholesome words rather than ugly words; and we think of others before we think of ourselves.

I think I will listen to Jimmy Palmer this week: It is how I live that counts!

As always, I thank you for the opportunity of service and look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday.
