The Good News

Wait A Minute!

The four year old granddaughter was caught up in all the gadgets that exist today. Her electronic games; her computerized toys; her DVD player; and so on. And on this particular weekend she was stuck at grandma's house with nothing to do. Someone had left the gadgets at home.

So to soothe this little girl the grandmother began telling her what her own childhood was like, without all of the electronic gadgets. "We used to skate outside on the pond. We had a swing made from a tire and it hung from a tree in our front yard. We rode our pony. We picked wild raspberries in the woods. We played hide and go seek until it was dark. We then gathered lightning bugs and placed them in a jar and watched them glow." The little girl became wide eyed, taking all of this in. And then the little four year-old said: "Grandma, I sure wish I had gotten to know you sooner."

Listen carefully: If someone tells you there is a sin that God cannot forgive; a blunder that God will not pardon; a mistake that is too much for His love; or a transgression that is too large for His grace then I will tell you that they should have gotten to know Jesus a little sooner. For all through the Gospels Jesus told one person after another: My son ... my daughter ... my child ... your sins are forgiven. Even while hanging on the cross forgiveness squeezed through his lips: Father, forgive them; they do not know what they are doing. So if you know Jesus then you should also know His forgiveness. He speaks to you right now: My child, you are forgiven.

Surely goodness and mercy will follow you all the days of your life. After a week of Spring break, I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday.
